Federal law requires political committees to use their best efforts to obtain the name, mailing address, employer and occupation for each individual whose individual contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle. Individuals may contribute a maximum of $5,000, $2,500 for primary election and $2,500 for general election. PACs may give a maximum of $10,000, $5,000 for primary and $5,000 for general elections. Corporate contributions are not permitted. Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

2012 Paid for by Jesse Young for U.S. Congress Committee.
